For more than 100 years, the Woman’s Club of Claremont has provided a forum for women to meet, support each other, and help the community. Promoting friendship among its members and donating and contributing to the community are two of its key foundations. Why is being involved in your community important to you? How have you served in the past, and how do you plan to serve your community in the future? Include why you think in-person involvement is especially important today.

WRITE BIOGRAPHY:

Please write a very short biography to be read aloud at our awards ceremony; include significant achievements, personal qualities, challenges overcome or future plans. The women who attend the award ceremony would like to know a little about your journey and yourself if you win a scholarship. This portion is not judged.
